Holds Off A Burglar.

How An Indiana Woman Was Able To Stand the Severe Strain.

Mrs. Johanna Foegely, of South Bond, Ind., recently passed through a most thrilling experience, which would be a severe strain upon any person and especially so for a woman of 72 years of age. An Indiana paper contains a long and interesting account of it, saying that the burglar would soon have ransacked the house had it not been for the coolness and presence of mind of Mrs. Foegely, who cleverly diverted his attention, even while the burglar kept a revolver at her head, commanding her to "keep quiet or I will send a bullet through yon," until he feared to remain longer. This is the Mrs. Foegely who was permanently relieved of dangerous Kidney and Blaider disease in 1900, by the prompt use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy; and because she possessed this good health and strength she was able to withstand the shock of her recent experience. Here is the first statement Mrs. Foegely gave, in 1900:

"For over three years I suffered from the most psiaful disease in my Kidneys and Bladder. Other remedies and my doctor failed to do me any good Rheematism set in and I was obliged to stay in bed; and it will always recommend it."

In 1912 Mrs. Foegely writes another letter in which she says, in part:
"My testimeny is as good as ever. The doctors all gave he up and told my daughter that anyone with such Kidneys could not live. After I had taken the first southe first and twill always recommend it."
